17 This matter comes before the Court on defendant's Motion for Reconsideration of 19 record, the Court hereby ORDERS:

20 (1) Defendant's Motion to Reconsider (Dkt. #198) is GRANTED IN PART and 21 DENIED IN PART. While the Court does not agree that this Court's Local Rules are either 22 confusing or in any way hard to understand, the Court accepts that no intentional violations of 23 the Local Rules occurred with respect to overlength briefing, and hereby VACATES the portion 24 of its previous Order imposing monetary sanctions against defendant. The Court will direct the 25 Clerk to refund the sanctions already paid.

26 However, having considered defendant's instant arguments, and having reviewed the 4 (2) The Clerk shall return to defendant a check in the amount of $500.00, which has 5 already paid to this Court. That refund shall be made payable to Gordon, Murray, Tilden, and
